

Careers at KCIC

Manager

Kenesis Corporate and Information Consulting (KCIC) is looking for smart, talented candidates who want to be a part of—and advance with—a fast-paced, high-growth company in Washington, DC. We offer challenging consulting opportunities in the areas of economic analysis and valuation, forecasts, credit analysis, and litigation and settlement support. KCIC seeks candidates with strong backgrounds in quantitative, economic or financial disciplines to provide our clients expert advice to manage their insurance portfolio.

Kenesis Corporate and Information Consulting

Kenesis Corporate and Information Consulting (KCIC) is a premier consultancy providing a full range of financial and strategic services to corporate policyholders and their legal counsel. We have a history of success in settlement negotiations and litigation support including providing expert testimony in some of the industry's landmark insurance cases.

KCIC brings decades of insurance industry knowledge and technical expertise in the areas of policy review, insurance archaeology, liability forecasting, allocation, credit analysis and expert reporting. Our proprietary technology, the Kenesis Allocation and Billing system, leads the industry in its ability to capture, organize, model and report on insurance-related assets and liabilities.

This combination of experience and technical capability provides our clients a full understanding of their insurance coverage and allows them to make better decisions for their business. KCIC clients include Fortune 500 companies and leading law firms. To learn more, visit www.kcicllc.com.
